The following is an agreement between the above named and the Morse Sash and Door Co..

The attached amount of $1500.00 is a non-transferable, non-refundable fee for design services. This will allow the client to have possession of the design perspectives during the design process to share with his/her contractor, family and friends.

Should the client decide to purchase cabinetry, within a 1 year period from the below signed date, the fee will then be waived and the amount given will be fully applied towards the cost of the cabinetry purchase only.

Please note: The design retainer's intention is as a financial commitment to purchase cabinetry and is not intended as a design service.

We agree to the above terms and conditions:
